SAPD RELEASES SKETCH OF CAPITAL MURDER SUSPECT

On Wednesday, August 29, 2007, at approximately 10:34 pm, San Antonio Police responded to 9711 Garden Crest for a shooting with a hit. When officers arrived, they discovered Juan Saldivar deceased from a gunshot wound to the torso. Detectives quickly arrived and began their investigation. Detectives were told that Saldivar was outside speaking to a friend when a dark colored vehicle drove up to them with a single occupant. The suspect demanded money from both men. Saldivar told the suspect he did not have any money, while his friend said he would go inside and get his wallet. At that point, the suspect fired his gun striking Saldivar, killing him instantly. The suspect then fled the scene in a vehicle he had recently stolen at gunpoint several minutes earlier at 9726 Perrin Beitel (Case 70/670038).

The San Antonio Police Department Homicide Unit is asking anyone with information on the possible identity of the composite sketch to call 207-7635 or CrimeStoppers at 224-STOP.
